EUROPE'S MARKETS ON VERGE LOURDES CONGRESS OF PANIC: STOCKS CRASH

there was a slight improvement toward ciliatory attitude of Servia

MARKETS ARE HARD HIT.

Rush to Sell Securities Causes & Near Pante.

Special Cable Desputches to Tuy St. London, July 25 .- The stock market here to-day was thoroughly demoralized of the probability of war between Austria and Servia, which it was feared would involve the whole of Surope. It closed at almost the lowest prices of the day, and in the case of conols at their lowest quotation for the Saturday session. Consols have rarely dropped so heavily or so rapidly.

The Continent wanted to sell and to heavily and this caused heavy de-

Taken in conjunction with the settlement for an extremely long period, nine-teen days, which begins Monday, the ex-c-ssive liquidation of the last two weeks and the Ulster trouble, the situation as viewed in financial circles is about the worst that has been seen for some time. The weakened condition of the markets from their long period of depression has only served to make matters worse. Sen-sational declines were not confined to the more speculative securicles, but extended ven to consols and the bonds of other higher in case war is declared.

Consols closed 19-18 points lower at 73% for money and at 73% for account. Russian bonds trapped 2½ points and Austrian bonds 3 points. Money was higher and discount rates advanced on the possibility that bank races would be before in case was is declared.

Home rails dropped ½ point and Rio Tintos were off 3 points. All foreigners and Continental favorites were heavily offered and were down several points. In fact all issues were weak and the tone at closing was one of uncertainty as to what might occur before Monday.

PARIS, July 25.—The Bourse was greatly depressed over the war scare. Bank shares, Russian industrials and French rentes slumped heavily. The new 3½ per cent, rentes dropped 5 points on the Issue Friday's level.

Financiers abandoned their week end holidays and the square fronting the Bourse was crowded with spectators.
Rentes dropped 1 franc 50 centimes to 78 francs, the lowest they have been fo offered, but buyers were lacking. lation as to the outcome of the Austrian-Servian situation and the possibility of all Europe being drawn into a war was

Although the Temps avoided the use of the word "panic" yesterday in referring to the Bourse, it says to-day that yesterday's panic was nothing compared v that of to-day's unofficial market w with about some recessions. operates before midday, when the official heiped the war talk in boosing prices. market opens. The unofficial market found itself flooded with selling orders for rentes, most of which came from

It was estimated that the 100,000,000 It was estimated that the 100,000,000 francs ($20,000,000) worth of rentes would be quoted as low as 74, but the officials of the market decided to await the opening of the official market, when the Brokers Syndical Chamber prohibited quotations under 79. Short sales were prohibited and sellers for forvery were made to produce scrip L'Information, the financial paper, says the impression on the Bourse to-day was more pessimistic than after the Agadir incident. Ninety-six stocks were dealt in and all fell. The new 3½ per cent, rentes lost 2½ per cent. Bank, railroad and industrial stocks tumbled. Shares of the Banque de Paris et des Pays Bas fell 45 points, the Credit Lyonnais 28, the Societe Generale 25 and the Union Pari-the Boerse to-day found a panic in full force. Russian consols dropped 2½ per cent. Russian bank stock quotations fell and Americans and Americans

45,000 AT FREE MOVIES.

St. Louis, July 25 .- Forty-five thousand cording to the estimate of Park Commis-bers of his Cabinet. sioner Davis.

has been enthusiastic in his statement have written fetters inquiring whether the free "movies" proved popular. The largest crowd of the week was at Columbus Square, on the opening night, that 10,000 persons crowded into the rived and playgrounds to see the films. The at-

Cuban Voodoo Captured in Tall

Grass; Girl Recovered.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUS year-old white girl from her home in no disturbances are anticipated. Regla, a suburb of Havana, to-day, and Some copies of the paper which the ran toward a swamp. The screams of the police did not seize sold on the street mother of the child attracted a crowd, for as high as $1 a copy. and the negro dropped the child and fleainto the tall dry grass.

The crowd, which had pursued him. surrounded the grass patch and startefires to burn him out. The police arrived on the scene and prevailed on the crowd i not to resort to burning as an improvement on lynching. The negro was taken ton to the police station and locked up.

grandmother's home near Marianoa.

They placed the girl in a sack and English speaking nations.

formal ceremony in honor of the 100 years of peace between the two great English speaking nations. grandmother's home near Marianoa.

negro vondoos, it is currently betheir sacrifices during the agan rites and this accounts for the stealing of many children.

M. and Mrs. Resph Page Referning.

King Peter of Servia.

The selling orders, especially from the The selling orders, especially from the provinces, swamped the brokers and the assurances of the Foreign Office that Russian intervention was improbable failed to check the panic. The Government sent out word that it was convinced that the Czar would not permit himself to be stampeded into the incalculable adventure of a European was venture of a European war. It was finally represented that the internal conditions in Russia at the present moment would make it suicidal on sented a gorgeous spectacle as they prothe part of the Czar's Government to risk a great international war.

The German Foreign Office reiterated trance.

punctilliously careful not to intrude with in sympathy with home and Continental confined herself to assuring the Vienna ecurities. The department as a whole howed losses of from a fraction of a oint to 2½ points, with Canadian Pacific ading the decline. Toward the close Austria-Hungary despect any action that leading the decline. Toward the close Austria-Hungary deemed necessary to prizes railled somewhat, but finished from safeguard her political security and national to 2 points below the previous day's tional honor.

VIENNA. July 25 .- The Boerse

SCARE SENDS WHEAT UP.

Gains Nearly Three Cents. The European war scare caused a sen-

At the highest levels prices showed gains ranging from 11, to nearly 3 cents a busnel, but profit taking by longs just before the close of the market brought

Reports of black rust in the Northwest As this year's wheat crop is estimated at 960,000,000 bushels, a 3 cent advance would add $28,800,000 to its value.

U. S. WATCHES SITUATION.

Amount to Little.

omprehensive

cent. Russian bank stock quotations fell 12 per cent. The outlook in financial circles is most gloomy.

Prices fell with sensational rapidity. Hamburg-American and North German Lioyd stocks shot down 1012. Deutsche CUBAN EDITOR IS JAILED.

Week of Innovation at St. Issue of Paper Attacking President registry office to-day. Menocal Suppressed.

Special Cable Despatch to THE St.

The authorities learned in some way married Mrs. Buxton. Any entertainment that will attract that to-night's edition of the paper would. The bride of to-day is a daughter of as it was, "must not be judged now, when nearly 7,000 persons every night is a contain the worst attack that has yet Col. Wilson, at whose house in Tranby she is plunged into an abyss from which been printed and Secretary of Govern- Croft the baccarat scandal developed I am making an effort to raise her, but ment Hevia sent a squad of police to the many years ago. to playground officials of other cities who office of El Cubano to suppress the issue of the paper. Senor Sagaro, the editor of the paper, is a Congressman and is therefore ingrune from prosecution. He ap- Volunteers Parade in Belfast-No At the opening of the session of the a week ago Friday, when it was estimated peared on the scene when the police arrived and a row followed, but no one

In spite of his immunity Sagaro was remains awaiting action by the police NEGRO STEALS A WHITE CHILD. Gov. Ashert, who is now serving a sen-Judge. The Liberal Club, the old club of which is situated on the Prado, and the Prado itself are crowded with Liberals who at a late hour were cheering for HAVANA, July 25.—A negro stole # five- Sagaro. The crowd is good natured and SULGRAVE MANOR PRESENTED.

Peace Committee Takes Charge of Would-Be Assassin in Constantinople Old Washington Home.

London, July 25.—Sulgrave Manor, the home of the family of George Washing-ton at Sulgrave, which was purchased for $42,500 subscribed in Great Britain. At about the same time three negroes was handed over to the members of the was leaving the Vizierate to-day a man who stole the daughter of a white policement peace committee as a gift to is supposed to be an Egyptian attempted the American people. This was the first to shoot him, but he was himself promptly village in North The loss of the child was discovered immediately and rural guards and local policemen started to hunt for her. The child was discovered in the woods five miles from her hone. Three negroes who were found in the vicinity were arrested. Shaw, Shirley Benn, M. P.; R. S. Ferris, the former's death. He was marked searched to her consisted of her page, the American Ambassador; the Duke of Teck, who is chairman of the British committee. Lord Shaw, Shirley Benn, M. P.; R. S. Ferris, secretary of the groundittee. Arthur, search are to Princess Ikhal secretary of the groundittee. Sulgrave, which is secretary of the committee; Arthur Branscombe, author of the history of the washington family, and Harry Brittain, exercises secretary of the Pigrim Society.

The visitors were welcomed on their arrival by the Mayor of Sylgrave and tealing of many children.

The same of Mayor of Shigraye and other municipal officials, who were in their tobes of office. The schools children, who were gathered about the officials, sang the national authems of the United States.

London, July 25.—Raiph Page, son of the American Ambassador to dizeat entered motor cars and went to the old strike here, which partook in a small way fork to day on the American line steamer. Duke of Tech handed the keys to the Carlonal authems of the United States and Great Britain. Afterward the party entered motor cars and went to the old of the nature of a revolt, is fizzling out the Carlonal authems of the United States and Great Britain. Afterward the party entered motor cars and went to the old of the nature of a revolt, is fizzling out the Carlonal authems of the United States and Great Britain. Afterward the party entered motor cars and went to the old of the nature of a revolt, is fizzling out the Carlonal authems of the United States.

Str. Peresseure, July 25.—The general strike here, which partook in a small way of the nature of a revolt, is fizzling out the Carlonal authems of the United States.

Str. Peresseure, July 25.—The general strike here, which partook in a small way of the nature of a revolt, is fizzling out and it is anticipated that work will be constant. American Ambassador.

IMPRESSIVE SIGHT

150 Americans Among the 15,-000 Attending the Eucharistic Meetings.

HOTEL MEN DISAPPOINTED

Charged Exorbitant Prices and People Staying at Nearby Towns.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. Lougoes, July 25 .- Surrounded by eight Cardinals in gorgeous attire and by more than 100 Archbishops and Bishops and hundreds of lesser prelates, 1,000 priests and 10,000 people in a superb setting of the graceful basilica with the rimmed, NOT MISSIVES WHICH towering peaks of the Pyrennes for a background, Cardinal Granito di Bel Bank stock tumbled 5 points. Canadian monte, the papal legate, opened Wednesday the twenty-fifth euchart Wednesday the twenty-fifth eucharistic congress. It was the second one ever held at Lourdes. Cardinal Farley of New York was rapturously greeted by the 150 American present. There has been a majestic procession of the blessed sacrament every morning at 6 o'clock, in which the participants are only ecclesiastics. There were upward of 3,000 of these and they preceeded from the Rosary chapel to the en-the statement that Austria acted absolutely on her own initiative and that Germany has throughout the crisis been participated. The esplanade during these processions was one great swirl of light and the mountains reverberated front of the Rosary chapel.

Bishops From All Over World.

Among those in attendance are cosopolitan Bishops from India, China, Asia, Africa and both the Americas, New the Minister of Justice. Zealand, Australia and Europe. The most trait of Christ.

sational advance in wheat in the market pointed, as they expected that 200,000 reading of the second letter, and the sesand they asked exorbitant prices for ac- who were much worried about her. She commodations. This frightened the people remained unconscious for quite a while and many are staying at Pau and adjacent and the physicians were on the point of towns. The hotels reduced their rates, administering a hypodermic injection but too late to do them any good.

A great crowd is expected here to-mor ow for the pontifical mass, which wil rains are coming from all directions.

the two which he read as the most important of the lot in explaining Mme. Call-leurs Bourassa of Canada was greeted with great enthusiasm when he made an eloquent speech on Canada's debt to France and France's great services to the Catholic Church. He incidentally contrasted the freedom enjoyed by French Canadian Catholics under Great Britain reading of the letters remained in their places for an hour after the adjournment. WASHINGTON, July 25.—Although the with great enthusiasm when he made an the public is convinced that something excit United States Government has no official interest in the recent sudden rupture of the relations between Austria and Servia, officials of the State Department are following the situation closely for the situation of the state department are following the situation of the situati trasted the freedom enjoyed by French. Those who were present during the wing the situation closely.

trasted the freedom enjoyed by French Those who were present during the
The State Department has received very Canadian Catholics under Great Britain

The State Department has received very Canadian Catholics under Great Britain

change in the Balkans ever since the out-break of the recent war and is thoroughly conversant with the conditions that have rought on the present crisis. It is known Komerzienrat Muller began an address witnessed Mme. Caillaux's complete colthat the apparent break comes as no great in German on the Eucharist and peace lapse could question the genuineness of enne 30.

Berlin, July 25.—The closing hour on the Bucharist and peace to day found a panic in full the Bucharist and peace to day found a panic in full the Bucharist and peace among the nations. Many persons restricted by the Bucharist and peace among the nations. Many persons restricted by the Bucharist and peace among the nations. Many persons restricted by the Bucharist and peace among the nations. Many persons restricted by the Bucharist and peace among the nations. Many persons restricted by the Bucharist and peace among the nations. Many persons restricted by the Bucharist and peace among the nations. Many persons restricted by the Bucharist and peace among the nations. Many persons restricted by the Bucharist and peace among the nations. Many persons restricted by the Bucharist and peace among the nations. Many persons restricted by the Bucharist and peace among the nations. Many persons restricted by the Bucharist and peace among the nations. The Bucharist and peace among the nations are peaced by the Bucharist and peace among the nations. The Bucharist and peace among the nations are peaced by the Bucharist and peace among the nations. The Bucharist and peace among the nations are peaced by the Bucharist and peaced by the Bucharist

Matrimonial Venture.

Special Cable Despatch to The Six.

women and children attended the HAVANA, July 25.—El Cubano, the local the latter, who made Earl Cowley the which converted the sobs of the prisoner, free moving picture entertainments in paper opposed to the Government, has corespondent. The Earl afterward mardowntown parks and playgrounds during been for some time making scurrilous atthe first week of the "movie" shows, actuacks on President Menocal and the mem- the Earl last year, naming Mrs. Buxton M. Labori seized the opportunity as corespondent. The Earl has since impress on the jury that the present ef-

ULSTER SITUATION QUIET.

Cabinet Meeting.

Special Cable Desputch to THE St. tendance on no night fell below 5,000.

In spite of his immunity Sagaro was no developments in the Uister situation.

Mr. Davis asserts.

In spite of his immunity Sagaro was no developments in the Uister situation. There was no meeting of the Cabinet. Winston Churchill, the First Lord of the of the first letter Mme. Caillaux bent her Admiralty, visited Premier Asouith in the head and began to sob bitterly, and as the morning and Baron Stamfordham, King lawyer proceeded, she completely disapence for killing Chief of Police Riva.

George's private secretary, also held a peared behind the rail of the prisoner's chick is situated on the Brade and the conference with Mr. Asquith in the after- enclosure, and her crouched body was noon, while the King granted an audi- shaken with nervous tremors. The letters ence to Lieut-Gen. Sir Arthur Paget, the were all written in the second person sincommander of the forces in Ireland.

equipped with rifles and machine guns.

ATTEMPT ON KHEDIVE'S LIFE.

Is Shot Down.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUS. CONSTAUTINOPLE, July 25 .- As the Khedive of Egypt, who is visiting here, Abbas II. Shedive of Egypt. was born on July 16, 1874, and therefore is 40 years old. He succeeded his father. Mohammed Tewtik, in January, 1892, at the former's death. He was married three years later to Princess Ikbal Hanem.

RUSSIAN STRIKE NEAR AN END. Subgrave and Work to Be Resumed Everywhere resumed everywhere on Monday,

MME. CAILLAUX SWOONS AS LOVE LETTERS ARE READ; JUDGE MAKES THREAT OF DUEL the time for a recess had at Dagoury, who was sitting bent over and said: "You

M. Albanel, Presiding Official, Charged With Favoring Defence.

CLASH IS PREVENTED AT THE LAST MOMENT

"Thousand Million Kisses Over Your Body," Says One Letter.

CAUSED THE MURDER

festimony Introduced by Physicians on How M. Calmette Died.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN Paris, July 25 .- There were two sepsations to-day at the sixth session of the trial of Mme. Caillaux for the murder of procession in which over 15,000 persons from M. Calllaux to his present wife while "Credo" which was sung in unison in by Judge Louis Albanel, the presiding Judge of the Assize Court, to Judge Louis Dagoury, one of the three other Judge's sitting in the case. The duel was prevented, however, by the intervention of striking figure is the Bishop of Nazareth, Cailiaux to have been stolen from M. who greatly resembles the typical por- Caillaux's desk by Mme Bertho Gueydan, solation-thee his first wife, before they were divorced. In addition to the French and Spanish Mme. Gueydan admitted that she took pilgrims the most numerous are the them to be prepared to fight her husband's Czechs and Magyars in their picturesque divorce suit. They were not, however, night's rest. What a life I lead! I have national costumes. There are about 400 the letters the threatened publication of

when she came to, and the trial proceeded

The result of reading the letter is that although M. Labori said he had chosen while the physicians were endeavoring It is ex- COUNTESS COWLEY REMARRIED, eagerly discussed the letters. These people were mostly lawyers and they all upon the She Takes Major Duberly in Third Seemed to be sure that the late Gaston Calmette would never have printed them and that Mme. Caillaux had greatly exaggerated the effects of their possible pub-LONDON, July 25.—Millicent. Countess lication. Her bourgeois modestly might Cowiey, was married to Major Duberly have survived even the final phrase of the of the Grenadier Guards at the Strand second letter, "a housand million kisses on all thy adorable body," which was the The Countess, who was originally the nearest approach to the grossness with wife of Sir J. Hartopp, was divorced by which the letters have been charged and fect of the reading of the letters, great as it would have been when she was on the heights from which she descended."

M. Labort Reads Letters.

court M. Labori began reading the letters. When he started to read the second let-LONDON, July 25.—The week end saw ter he remarked: "In this you will find gular, and the affectionate diminutive A despatch from Beifast says 5,000 "Riri" for "Henriette," Mme. Caillaux's Ulster Volunteers marched through the streets of that city this evening fully terran as follows:

My DEAR LITTLE RIRE: I have read with the attention it merited the letter which thou hast written me and which calls for an explicit response. For several days I have had the intention of dissipating any misunderstanding by a complete explanation. When I met thee I felt the impulsion of my whole being. I should nevertheless have resisted and should no doubt have had the courage to conquer myself if I had been happy at home. But I was not happy.

home. But I was not happy.

I was humiliated and wounded by the action I had undergone, and no one can make me forget my bruised feelings. No one could soothe my in-juries. On the contrary, they were aggravated. Therefore I threw myself toward thee with passionate fury, or rather with furious passion. Never-theless at the time of the incidents to which it is unnecessary to refer I considered it my duty to release thee entirely by giving thee in a letter thy full liberty.

Not Sure Then of Divorce. As a matter of fact I did not feel myself sufficiently sure of receiving

FREE FIRE WORKS TUESDAYS & THURSDAYS

Queensboro Bridge Trolley Also Direct

my independence to give me the right to engage thee to obtain thine. With fine courage and with the beautiful boldness which love and confidence gave thee, thou hast conquered their freedom, saying to me in substance, "I ask of thee but one engagement—that is to give me thy love now," and to this thou hast added, "I shall not believe quite in the fulness of thy love if thou dost not succeed some day-in thyself becoming free."

I answered thee, "I do and will love thee. I certainly expect to regain my liberty some day, but in any case I shall not move before the elections."

When a man is unhappy at home.

When a man is unhappy at home and he has outside a delicious affec-tion that naturally reacts upon him, those who have made him unhappy those who have made him unhappy have only themselves to reproach.
However that may be, events happened in September. Thou hast been weak. They shouldst have closed thy door to the fuglitive and made use of that favorable opportunity."

Undoubtedly the attitude thou suggested the good of the control of the

Undoubtedly the attitude thou sugsestest could have been taken quite legitimately, but thou forgettest that it would have been well known she was injured in her affections and that we had all to fear from the fury of a woman who felt her situation gone and who had not yet had time to reconcile herself to that idea.

Thou knowest well, my dear love, that I love thee above all and bethat I love thee above all and be-that I love thee above all and be-yond all—that I feel that happiness is with thee; that I await it—that I hope for it—that I live only for its realization. I love thee with all my

The second letter was written before M. would feel when he could "press a thou-sand million kisses over thy dear body." sand million kisses over thy dear body." said he had attended many victims of It was sixteen pages in length and was begun on October 18, 1909, and finished had ever tried to diminsh his responsia minute to write-

The letter, which was written on the official note paper of the Prefecture of the Department of the Sarthe, went on to give a long account of a cattle show at Le Mans and of an official visit by M. Caillaux to Paris, after which it said:

The oath requiring him to tell the whole truth, explaining that some one had visited him in connection with the case and said he called on behalf of M. Laborl, laux to Paris, after which it said:

Dr. Delbet said he was under a pleage of Thou must be very reasonable and stay at Dinard for the present. I fear only one thing—blackmail. Perhaps some one will make a scandal. Sometimes I am very dis-couraged. What a life! I have but one con-

It was at this point that Mme. Caillaux when she recovered she told her husband, scientific grounds that an immediate operwho had rushed to her side, that she felt ation might have been successful, but he strong enough to go on with the hearing, and she was taken back into the court room. A chair was brought for her to-sit on instead of the prisoner's beach.

When the successful, but he defence his dearest friends with the successful to the successful, but he successful to the strong might have been successful, but he defence his dearest friends.

read them.
On the return of Mme. Caillaux to the court room she seemed to'be in an almost omatose condition. She was unable to comatose condition. She was unable to sit upright and was absolutely without color. Her eyes were closed and through this latter fact she avoided a sight of the clothes which M. Calmette wore when she shot him. These were produced by the next witness, a medical expert, who showed them to the jury and explained the built, belief these.

the bullet boles Dr. Emile Reymond, a Senator and a noted aviator, who was the next witness gave M. Calmette's last words as he was dying. They were: "What I have done let it be clearly known I have done with-out hate; you understand, without hate."

Attempt to Blame Surgeons.

M. Labori then began the delicate task of examining three of the most eminent surgeons in Paris who attended M. Calmette in his dying hours, with the view of proving that they had made a mistake in postponing the operation on M. Calmette from 6:30 P. M., shortly after the shooting, until 11:40 P. M., when he died as the incision was made.

The newspapers known as M. Caillauz's press have been carrying on a campaign asserting this view for several weeks past, so the witnesses were prepared to answer the questions. The incidents between the surgeons and the M. Labori then began the delicate task cidents between the surgeons and the great lawyer came fast. Dr. Henri Hart-mann, one of the surgeons, excitedly his the railing with his fist as he said that he was ready to give the facts to the jury but added that it was "the first time before a French tribunal that an attempt had been made to turn assassina into a charge against surgeons."

Hartmann explained that M. Calmette was to weak for an operation which was tried as a final resource. Dr. Cuneo, the next surgeon, was shorter in his replies to M. Labori. next day. It begins:

billty by pleading the insufficiency of the 'My Beloved Little Riri: At last I have medical care which had been given his

Dr. Delbet began by refusing to take Dr. Delbet said he was under a pledge of secrecy to this unknown person and there-fore would be unable to tell the truth. M. Labori in an eloquent outburst de-clared he knew nothing about the man, whereupon Dr. Delbet testified at length, output, statistics from the Transyan. quoting statistics from the Transvaal "I clearly foresee no end of difficulties.

At times I feel awfully discouraged, and I am thoroughly worn out. I have slept very little lately having had search the wounds was inadvisable.

pointed, as they expected that 200,000 reading of the second letter, and the sespense would be here. They have no one but themselves to blame for the smaller attendance. The prospect of an enormous crowd aroused their rapacity.

The defence then called its medical experts. Dr. Pozzi, who was a friend of M. Calmette, expressed regret that an immediate operation had not been made. He while the prisoner was carried by two smaller attendance. The prospect of an enormous crowd aroused their rapacity.

There who would be here. They have no sion of the court had to be suspended while the prisoner was carried by two smaller attendance. The prospect of an enormous crowd aroused their rapacity. There who would be here. They have no sion of the court had to be suspended while the prisoner was carried by two smaller attendance. The prospect of an enormous crowd aroused their rapacity. There who was a friend of M. Calmette, expressed regret that an immediate operation had not been made. He while the prisoner was carried by two knowest—that I adore thee and that I adore the and the prisoner was carried by two knowest—that I adore the and the court had to be suspended while the prisoner was carried by two knowest—that I adore the and the court had to be suspended while the prisoner was carried by two knowest—that I adore the and the court had to be suspended while the prisoner was carried by two knowest—that I adore the and the court had to be suspended to the court had to be wholly thine."

The letter concludes: "A thousand million kisses over all your adorable little body."

The letter concludes: "A thousand milless bodies. Although in this testimony he strongly supported the defence Dr. Pozzi refused to answer M. Labori's questions when the lawyer attempted to lead him into criticising the details of the medical treatment of M. Calmette.

Dr. Proust, dean of the Hospital of Surgeons, was willing to say on general scientific grounds that an immediate oper

the debate in regard to the letters its height Judge Albanel suggest the time for a recess had arrived. The two Judges met in the room afterward and a heated dis-ensued. Judge Dagoury is repor-having made an apology. Mattres I Robert, Labori and Chenu interve-peacemakers between the two Judge peacemakers between the two Judgethe incident was regarded as closed.

morning, however, a report of it wa public in a note on the front p Figaro, which left Judge Albanel no but to send his seconds to his Judge Albanel brought the mai-fore the Minister of Justice and ti-ter summoned Judge Dagoury to before him this evening. Judge All second therefore explained to-night the regulation of the matter having placed in the hands of the tones to the presiding magistrate Another story is to the effect t

It would not be surprising if would result from the tria. The report in circulation that M. Caill M. Chenu, counsel for the Calmet dren, who has been prominent tempt to convict Mme. Caillaux resort to the code after the trial

The greatest crowd yet gather the Palais de Justice to witness parture of prominent persons after journment. M. Caillaux visited urnment. M. Caillaux visited his the Conciergerie without leaving uilding by using secret passas

U. S. SHIP RUNS ASHORE WITH REDFIELD PARTY

Secretary and Congressional Committee Caught in Storm Off Delaware Capes.

PHILADELPHIA, July 25 .- In one of the worst storms that has swept the Delaware capes for years the Government lighthouse tender Irls, with Secretary Redfield and a Congressional committee aboard, was blown ashore just north of Cape Henioper this afternoon.

anchored a short distance away, although badly damaged by the storm, went to the relief of the Iris, and after an hour's hard work succeeded in getting her affoat

Secretary Redfield, after the Iris haven floated, went out with the crew the Endeavor to rescue that vessels launch, which had been swept away the gale.
The Iris was not badly damaged, but the upper decks of the Endeavor were swept clear of everything, and for some time during the storm the survey boa; was in danger of sinking.

was in danger of sinking.
Secretary Redfield and the Representatives, with Capt. Conway of the lighthouse service, were on a trip of inspection of the lighthouses and lightships of Delaware Bay. They are now at a hotel AMERICAN WINS GRAND PRIX.

France to Send San Francisco Architeet to Villa Medecis.

Special Cable Despatch to THE St Paris, July 25 .- A San Francisco man named Ferran was awarded to-day the Grand Prix de Rome in architecture

New Comet Visible to Naked Eve SAN JOSE, Cal., July 25 .- The Delayar omet, which was discovered last Decemher, is now visible to the naked eye. according to a statement from Lick Ob servatory. It is as bright as a fifth mag-

"Work Your Telephone Hard"

Y/E have a rule in our place of business that we always impress upon each new employee, and that rule is, 'work your telephone hard," said one of our subscribers

"Working by telephone saves their time and our money. It increases their capacity for work and it gives our business a certain snap and speed that brings greater efficiency."

Why not make this one of your business rules:

"Work Your Telephone Hard"

NEW YORK TELEPHONE COMPANY

